Welcome!

Authentic. Cordial. Delightful. - The family-run vacation domicile with its own ranch can already look back on 150 years of host tradition. Here you can feel the deep connection with the Rhön, its nature and the culinary delicacies that this region produces. In the cozy restaurant you will be spoiled with delicacies from the Rhön: for breakfast there is honey from the beekeeper, homemade jams, herb curd with ingredients from their own garden, homemade sausage and juices from the Rhön fruit. On weekends, real Thuringian dumplings are on the menu. One is served in style in rural costume. The hotel rooms are furnished in romantic-modern country house style and for the most part with real wood furniture. The balconies offer a magnificent view of the countryside! During the day, there is a wealth of excursion options available: whether on foot, by bike, or on the back of a horse from our own Stockborn Ranch.
